

RULE IX
ELIGIBILITY LISTS FOR BEGINNING POSITIONS

A. Passing Score

Applicants must receive a score of seventy percent (70%) or higher on the written examination in order to be placed on the eligibility list and continue with the selection process.

B. Military Preference

Applicants who have:

1. served on active duty for a minimum of 180 consecutive days in the United States Armed Forces;
2. been released from and not currently serving on active duty;
3. been assigned a character of active service that is rated Honorable; and
4. scored seventy percent (70%) or higher on the written entrance examination are eligible to receive an additional five (5) points, which shall be added to the applicant's written entrance examination score and used to determine his/her placement on the eligibility list.

To receive the five (5) military preference points, applicants must provide evidence of honorable military service and submit such evidence to the appropriate Police Department or Fire Department Recruiting Office no later than the date specified in the Civil Service Commission's examination announcement. Only an original or certified true and exact copy of the DD-214 indicating character and length of honorable service will be considered sufficient evidence of honorable military service.

Applicants who acquire the 180 days of honorable service after the designated submission deadline or who do not provide sufficient evidence of honorable military service within the designated time frame shall not be eligible for the five (5) military preference points.

Only the following copies of DD214s will be accepted: Member 4, Service 2, Service 7, Service 8, and State Director of Veterans Affairs-6.

C. Tiebreaker

Lots are drawn at the time of the examination. In the event two or more applicants receive identical scores on the written examination, the applicants are placed on the eligibility list according to the lot they drew. The applicant with the lowest lot is listed first.

D. Preparation of Eligibility List

The Civil Service Director shall cause to be prepared a list of names of all applicants who score seventy percent (70%) or higher on the written examination. This list of names is ordered from the highest score to the lowest score, inclusive of veteran's points and lots. This list becomes the eligibility list for the position for which the entrance examination was given and all appointments to said position are made from this list.

E. Approval and Duration of Eligibility List

The Director shall present the list of eligible applicants to the Commission for approval, attesting to the correctness of the order of placement of eligible applicants on the list. This list will be valid for a period of not less than six months or more than twelve months from the date it is approved by the Commission, unless the names of all applicants on the list have been referred to the appropriate department. The Commission shall determine the length of the period after considering the requests of each respective department.

F. Notice of Placement on Eligibility List

Applicants are notified in writing of their examination score and results. Those applicants who passed the examination are also informed of their position on the eligibility list. Applicants who are either natural-born or adopted children of a fire fighter, who suffered a line of duty death, shall be ranked at the top of the eligibility list if the applicant receives a minimum score. Applicant must still satisfy all minimum requirements for eligibility in order to be considered for a beginning position. The Chief shall make the final determination on whether an applicant meets the line of duty death definitions.

G. Proper and Sufficient Notice to Applicants

Notices sent to an applicant's last known address are considered sufficient and proper notification.

It is the responsibility of each applicant on an eligibility list to notify the Commission in writing within ten (10) business days of any change of address. Failure to respond or report changes in address will deem the applicant unsuitable.

Applicants deemed unsuitable for this cause are eligible to reapply for subsequent entrance examinations.

H. Suitability for Appointment to a Beginning Position

An applicant will be deemed unsuitable for appointment to a beginning position whenever the applicant loses any of the minimum qualifications set forth in Rule VII, MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS.

In addition to the minimum qualifications, the following establishes causes for determining an applicant's suitability for appointment to a beginning position in the Police or Fire Department:

1. Academic Ability

Applicants' academic records must reflect the ability to maintain the high standards demanded in the Training Academy.

When an applicant presents a high school diploma or a G.E.D. certificate, the applicant's academic records must reflect a minimum overall grade point average of "C" or its numerical equivalent. In the event an applicant's high school grade point average is below this standard, or the applicant presents a G.E.D. certificate, the applicant must have attended an accredited college or university, completed at least twelve (12) semester hours, and maintained a minimum grade point average of a "C" or its numerical equivalent. The college hours shall be from an accredited learning institution of higher education recognized by the State Board of Education in the State in which the college resides and accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools or a similar regional association recognized by the U.S. Department of Education.

Semester hours presented under this cause do not include Continuing Education Credits (CEU), Technical Training, or credit for Life Experience or any other training where college credit was given but specific letter or number grades were not assigned.

Applicants deemed unsuitable under this cause are eligible to reapply for subsequent entrance examinations.

2. Withdrawals

Applicants desiring to withdraw from consideration must submit a signed written statement indicating this desire to the Applicant Processing Unit. In the event no written statement is presented, the applicant will continue in the process subject to the conditions specified in these rules.

Applicants withdrawing their applications are eligible to reapply for subsequent entrance examinations.

3. Financial Responsibility

Applicants must demonstrate fiscal responsibility and judgment in the management of their personal affairs. An applicant's poor or bad credit history, failure to pay just debts, delinquency on outstanding loans, or bankruptcies, repossessions, and foreclosures will be considered on a case-by-case basis due to the number of variables involved.

Factors considered include the type and number of debts, reasons for credit problems, extenuating circumstances, and the potential for financial-related problems to have an impact on the applicant's judgment and integrity.

Applicants obligated to child and/or spousal support payments must be current on all payments.

Applicants deemed unsuitable under this cause are not eligible to reapply for eighteen (18) months from the date deemed unsuitable under this cause

4. Physical Fitness

Applicants must possess the physical ability necessary to perform the rigorous physical demands of the Training Academy and to professionally accomplish the assignments of a police officer or fire fighter without undue risk of injury or fatigue. Applicants must demonstrate they possess an efficient cardiovascular respiratory system and adequate levels of muscular strength, flexibility, and endurance by their successful completion of the Physical Fitness Evaluation in which they meet or exceed the Physical Fitness Standards approved by the Commission in Rule XV, MEDICAL, PSYCHOLOGICAL, and PHYSICAL FITNESS.

Applicants must meet or exceed each standard during a single evaluation to be considered having successfully completed the evaluation.

Applicants who fail the physical fitness evaluation are allowed to retest within two (2) weeks. Applicants failing the physical fitness evaluation after two attempts are unsuitable.

Applicants deemed unsuitable under this cause are eligible to reapply for subsequent entrance examinations.

5. Driving Record

Applicants must possess a valid Texas Class "C" Operator's License or another state's equivalent.

Applicants' driving records must reflect driving habits that are compatible with the safe operation of emergency vehicles. Applicants are deemed unsuitable when at any point in their processing; their driving records reflect one or more of the following:

- a) No more than three (3) hazardous moving violations, regardless of disposition, within thirty-six months of application. Applicants deemed unsuitable under this cause are eligible to reapply for subsequent entrance examinations.

- b) No more than ten (10) traffic citations with any disposition other than "not guilty" or a non-conditional dismissal, regardless of whether the violation is hazardous or non-hazardous. Applicants deemed unsuitable under this cause are permanently unsuitable.
- c) Involvement as a driver in two (2) or more motor vehicle accidents within the preceding twenty-four (24) months where the applicant's actions contributed to the accident in any way. Applicants deemed unsuitable under this cause are eligible to reapply for subsequent entrance examinations.
- d) Suspension or revocation of driving privileges within the preceding twenty-four (24) months. Applicants deemed unsuitable under this cause are eligible to reapply for subsequent entrance examinations.
- e) Traffic citations, regardless of disposition, for two (2) or more hazardous moving traffic offenses with any disposition other than "not guilty" within the twelve (12) months preceding the date of the appointment to the Training Academy. Applicants deemed unsuitable under this cause are eligible to reapply for subsequent entrance examinations.
- f) Applicants must not be on probation for D.W.I. or other traffic offenses. Applicants deemed unsuitable under this cause are eligible to reapply for subsequent entrance examinations.
- g) Applicants must not be wanted on outstanding traffic warrants. Applicants deemed unsuitable under this cause are eligible to reapply for subsequent entrance examinations.

6. Polygraph Examination

Applicants must demonstrate their veracity in responses to all personal history, employment, criminal activity, and personal habit interrogatories presented in the Polygraph Questionnaire approved by the Commission. Satisfactory demonstration of this requirement will be based on a polygraph examiner's report of "No Deception Indicated."

Manner of Testing

- a) Each applicant is required to complete an approved "Polygraph Examination Questionnaire" prior to undergoing the examination.
- b) The polygraph examination is for the sole purpose of verifying the applicant's truthfulness in the responses to the approved questionnaire.

- c) Current or former law enforcement, corrections, or security officers are required to respond to additional questions relating to their conduct as a law enforcement, corrections, or security officer.
- d) Polygraph examinations are conducted by a licensed polygraph examiner.
- e) Applicants whose original polygraph results are found to be other than "No Deception Indicated" are re-examined within thirty (30) days.
- f) Subsequent polygraph examinations are conducted by a different examiner.
- g) Examiners who are related to an applicant, in the first degree by blood or marriage, are ineligible from administering the polygraph examination to the relative or to applicants appearing higher than the relative on the eligibility list.

Applicants whose polygraph results remain deceptive or inconclusive after two (2) examinations are deemed unsuitable.

Applicants deemed unsuitable one time under this cause are eligible to reapply for subsequent entrance examinations.

Applicants deemed unsuitable more than one time under this cause are deemed permanently unsuitable.

7. Psychological Evaluation

Applicants must be certified by a licensed psychologist or psychiatrist to be in satisfactory psychological and emotional health appropriate to the duties and functions of a professional police officer or fire fighter.

Applicants who fail to be certified as psychologically fit to perform the duties of a police officer or fire fighter by a licensed psychologist or psychiatrist are deemed unsuitable.

In accordance with Chapter 143.022, applicants deemed unsuitable under this cause may request another examination by a board of three physicians, psychiatrists, or psychologists, as appropriate, appointed by the commission. The applicant must pay for the board examination. The board's decision is final.

Applicants who fail to be certified by the board are eligible to reapply for subsequent entrance examinations.

8. Compliance with Processing Requirements

Applicants are required to complete and satisfactorily meet the employment process requirements. This includes submitting paperwork such as the personal history questionnaire and other documents prior to the designated date, reporting to appointments and examinations on the scheduled dates and times, proper notification of address and/or telephone number changes, and complying with the directions and instructions of the Applicant Processing Unit.

Applicants are required to show proof of having completed the Hepatitis B vaccine series prior to completion of processing (for Fire Applicants only). Applicants who previously have taken the vaccine shall not be required to take it again, but must show proof.

Applicants who fail to complete or satisfactorily meet the employment process requirements are unsuitable.

Applicants deemed unsuitable under this cause are eligible to reapply for subsequent entrance examinations.

9. Employment History

a) Applicants must demonstrate maturity, dependability, integrity, good work ethic, and loyalty to their past and present employers.

- The applicant's employment history from age seventeen (17) must not indicate instability in the applicant's employment history; excessive tardiness or absenteeism; inefficiency; failure to follow directions, policies and procedures, and rules and regulations; poor working relationships; or negligent work habits.

Applicants deemed unsuitable under the above cause are not eligible to reapply for a period of eighteen (18) months from the date deemed unsuitable for this cause.

b) Applicants must not have been terminated, asked to resign, or resigned from any previous employment for engaging in inappropriate or unlawful behavior, including but not limited to any of the following:

- Theft
- Assault
- Threats
- Any Felony Offense
- Sex Crimes
- Sexual Harassment
- Discriminatory or Retaliatory Acts
- Any offense involving acts of morale turpitude

- Disorderly Conduct or other Breaches of the Peace

Applicants deemed unsuitable under the above cause remain permanently unsuitable.

- c) Applicants must not have been employed or engaged in an illegal occupation.

Applicants deemed unsuitable due to employment in an illegal occupation remain permanently unsuitable.

- d) Applicants previously employed as law enforcement officers, corrections officers, emergency medical technicians (any level) or fire fighters who have been terminated or asked to resign from the employing agency remain permanently unsuitable. This shall include law enforcement officers, corrections officers, emergency medical technicians (any level) or fire fighters that have been terminated or asked to resign during their probationary period, but does not include applicants who are terminated or are asked to resign while attending a training academy.

10. Personal Interview and/or Behavioral Assessment Device

- a) Police Applicants

- 1) Applicants must demonstrate their ability to effectively communicate in a structured interview process which requires the applicant to respond to common police scenarios.
- 2) The applicants are rated on the following dimensions:
 - Decision Making
 - Ability to Control Anger
 - Stress Management
 - Self-confidence
 - Openness and Honesty
 - Independence of Judgment
 - Flexibility
 - Personal Security
 - Understanding of Others
- 3) Applicants who fail to satisfactorily demonstrate these dimensions are deemed unsuitable.
- 4) Applicants are provided feedback regarding the specific dimension(s) in which they were deficient, what they excelled in, and what they might do to improve their future performance.

- 5) Applicants deemed unsuitable under this cause are eligible to reapply for subsequent entrance examinations.

b) Fire Applicants

- 1) Applicants must provide evidence of suitability for the position of fire fighter as well as demonstrate their ability to effectively communicate during one or more of the following exercises:
 - a. Structured Interview,
 - b. Behavioral-Personnel Assessment Device, and/or a similar Behavior Assessment Device,
 - c. Screening Board Interview.
- 2) Applicants may be provided feedback regarding the specific dimension(s) in which they were deficient, what they excelled in, and what they might do to improve their future performance.
- 3) Applicants deemed unsuitable under this cause are eligible to reapply for subsequent entrance examinations.

11. False Statements of Material Fact

Applicants must be truthful and honest in their responses to all inquiries relative to their suitability for employment.

Applicants found to have withheld material information, and/or practiced or attempted to practice any deception or fraud in their application, examination, or appointment are deemed unsuitable.

Applicants deemed unsuitable under this cause remain permanently unsuitable.

If an applicant is deemed unsuitable for this rule based on a finding of unsuitability by another agency, the period of unsuitability will be the same as that of the originating agency.

12. Medical Examination

Applicants must be declared physically sound and free from defect which may adversely affect the performance of the duties of a police officer or fire fighter. (Reference to drug dependency/illegal drug use moved to Rule IX, 13. Use of Illicit Substances.) To this end, applicants must be certified by a licensed physician in accordance with Chapter 143 of the Texas Local Government Code to meet or exceed the physical requirements established by this Commission for the position applied for.

In accordance with Chapter 143.022, applicants deemed unsuitable under this cause may request another examination by a board of three physicians, psychiatrists, or psychologists, as appropriate, appointed by the commission. The applicant must pay for the board examination. The board's decision is final.

Applicants who fail to be certified by the board are eligible to reapply for subsequent entrance examinations.

13. Use of Illicit Substances

In order to be deemed suitable, applicants must show no trace of drug dependency or illegal drug use after a physical examination, urine test, blood test, or other medical test designed to detect the presence of controlled substances.

Applicants are deemed unsuitable if they have:

a) Used marijuana for the purpose of recreation or intoxication:

- 1) Any time during the twenty-four (24) months preceding the date of examination. Applicants deemed unsuitable under this cause are eligible to reapply for subsequent entrance examinations when the unsuitability factor is no longer applicable.
- 2) More than three (3) independent times during the five (5) years preceding the date of the examination. Applicants deemed unsuitable under this cause are eligible to reapply for subsequent entrance examinations when the unsuitability factor is no longer applicable.
- 3) At any time while serving as a law enforcement officer, correction officer, security officer, or fire fighter. Applicants deemed unsuitable under this cause remain permanently unsuitable.

b) Used paint, glue or other inhalants for the purpose of intoxication
